

Corporation for New Jersey Local Media

Editorial Independence Policy

We adhere to standards of editorial independence adopted by the Institute for Nonprofit News.

The papers of the New Jersey Hills Media Group retain full authority over editorial content to protect the best journalistic and business interests of our organization and the trust of our readers. We maintain a firewall between editorial decisions and all sources of revenue. Acceptance of foundation grants, donations, sponsorships, advertising, or in-kind support, including from the Corporation for New Jersey Local Media, the group's owner, does not constitute endorsement of their products, services, practices, or opinions.

The papers of the New Jersey Hills Media Group may consider donations and grants supporting coverage of particular topics, but our staff maintains editorial control of the coverage. We will cede no right to review or influence our editorial content. Unauthorized distribution of our news coverage and commentary is prohibited. All sponsored content is clearly labeled as such.

The New Jersey Hills Media Group, and its owner the Corporation for New Jersey Local Media, will make public all donors who give a total of $50 or more per year. Our donor list for the previous fiscal year (January – December) can be found here:
